Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

Sometimes, he could barely hold a sword because of the sheer volume of his tears. His mentors all shook their heads in disbelief. The boy was amazing when his focus was intact, and would surely rise to be the Supreme Guardian of the temple...if his problem could be fixed.

Many had asked him why he cried so often, and this only made him cry more. He had been banished from TV because he cried so freely at commercials of abused dogs and lost love. Everyone was at a loss as to how to handle the child.
